

INDEX

Book Reviews

22, 35-36, 47-48, 56, 65-66, 80, 126-128, 137-138, 154, 157-159

Botany

Botanical reports for 1991: flowering plants and ferns, 39-43; Snuffed out for snuff: Meum athamanticum in the Robert Leyland Herbarium, 45-46; Gentianella amarella ssp. septentrionalis in Yorkshire, 125

Bryology

Y.N.U. Bryological Section: annual report 1992-1993, 77-79

Coleoptera

Ground beetles from a garden and a small field, 111-116

Fish

Recent occurrences in Yorkshire of sea lampreys, 43

Hymenoptera

Recorder's fifth report on the Aculeate Hymenoptera in Watsonian Yorkshire, 73-77

Lichenology

Lichen flora of the West Yorkshire conurbation - supplement V (1991-93), 57-60; Preliminary study of the lichen flora of Spurn Point, 151-154

Mammals

Status and distribution of the otter in North Yorkshire, 23-35; Bats and their roosts in Cleveland and north east Yorkshire III: the noctule bat, 37-38; Bat predation by a tawny owl, 49-56; Feeding ecology of little owls at an upland site in northern England, 81-94; Deer in the Sheffield region including the eastern Peak District, 103-110; A new pine marten record for the North Yorkshire Moors, 145-150; Notes on the diet of the red fox in the Peak District, 155-157

Mollusca

Evidence for increased levels of imposex in Nucella lapillus populations on the north-east coast of England, 139-144

Mycology

Fungi of Doune Ponds, Stirlingshire, with special reference to bonfire-site species, 117-125

Obituary

R. J. Rhodes, 44-45

Ornithology

Marsh tit, 47; Bat predation by a tawny owl, 49-56; Changing status of red grouse on peripheral moorlands in the Peak District, 61-65; Grey wagtail, 80; The birds of North Cliffe Wood, 129-137

Reptiles

Changes in the distribution of reptiles in the East Riding of Yorkshire, 95-103

Topography

The development of Pulfin, 67-73

Yorkshire Naturalists' Union

Presidential address: Natural history and the exploration of nature, 3-22